PRESIDENTIAL VIEW

March Madness Has Begun

Once again, the crazy times are upon us. Snow one day, hot sun the next. Leaves are starting to sprout and flowers bud. Time for Spring Fling and the panic to sell tickets. You will note that it is possible to buy your tickets right off the Kiwanis Website in case anyone wants to charge their tickets. We have the fabulous Spectrum with us this year. This is the band that supported us for so many years and we are glad to have them back. Tickets are also available at the local spots... Unos, Flagstop, and the Village Bank. Kings Korner will cater again. Great Chicken and Pork BBQ. And all for Only $20.

Be sure to thank and support our corporate sponsors, large and small. We really depend on them to make or break our fundraiser. This is going to be a tough year for everyone economically. Anything we can do to help them, helps us in the end. Be particularly kind to the Village Florist. They donated the floral arrangements for the Governor's visit last month.

Finally, the club celebrates it's 36th anniversary this month. Still young, still strong.

Good News/ Bad News

Congratulations to our very own Dave Elswick for his contribution at the Heart of Virginia Midwinters. Well done!

It is with great sadness that we acknowledge President-elect Holly Flores' pending move to Colorado. We wish her family well and hope she finds a Kiwanis home waiting for her there.

Children Priority One

Chairman Basil Furr reports the Book Collection is going well, however, we can always use more. Although this is a two-month project, it is a continuing program. By donating $10, Basil can purchase ten books at used book sales, auctions, or special events throughout the year.

Spring Fling

Tickets are out. If you have not already, please pick yours up at the next meeting. Posters are also available for your place of business. Please thank our friends at Quick Copy in Colonial Heights for their printing donations. Every dollar counts this year. Several student organizations at John Tyler will be helping sell tickets this year. Hopefully, with a lower ticket price, we will be able to sell more tickets and increase our revenue.
