ATTENDANCE BETTER with 17 of 35 at our Wednesday meeting....we seek the other 18 of ya !

TRAVELOGUE SALES showing some momentum this week. President Joyner sold some 8 tickets just by putting flyers in his neighbor's mail boxes and following through with a telephone call several days later to see how many tickets people wanted. DON SWIFT HAS THE TRAVELOGUE PROGRAM FLYERS..... good sales material...get a supply of'em.

OCT 1 LADIES NIGHT /INDUCTION OF OFFICERS & DIRECTORS affair finds some 40 reservations already filled-to enjoy steak or seafood platter and PAUL KREIGLER, noted area gem and jewelry expert. MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS THIS WEEK PLEASE..... See Dave Jones or Marshall Henry. We would appreciate your paying by check prior to our big evening.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Sep 12 BBQ at Manheim Farm at Ashland
- Sep 16 Picnic with the Chesterfield Club at Rockwood Park/Ladies are invited. No Sep.17 meeting.

Signs Of The Times

- On the wall of a beanery: Our silverware is not medicine—you don't have to take it after meals!
- In a flower shop: We don't mind if you stick your nose in our business.
- In a delicatessen: Our tongue sandwiches speak for themselves.
- Posted on a park lawn: Keep your dogs off the grass—it has double-edged blades.
- In front of a hardware store: We can't spell success without u.
- Sign held up by a hitchhiker: Save gas—take me along, too.
- On a cosmetic counter: Let us show you how to save face.
- At a neighborhood laundromat: Better to have loved and lost than to do 30 pounds of wash each week.
- Sign in a paint and wallpaper store: Husband choosing colors must have a note from his wife.
- In a bank: We Teach Your $$$ To Have More $$$.
- In a toy shop: Shoplifters Will Be Spanked.
- On a Los Angeles laundry: In by 10 Dirty—Out by 4:30.
