Programs

May 11 - Mr. Louis Lawson - Director of the Virginia Energy Office.

May 18 - Mr. Oren E. Collier, Jr., Diamond Investment, Good or Bad?

May 25 - Jim Clark and Russ Brown - "The Dynamic Duo". The topic may include beer drinking pigs, show dogs, bass fishing, insurance or you name it! So let's have a good turn out for these two fellow Kiwanians.

June 1 - Board of Directors Meeting.

Joe Hillier, Program Chairman, would appreciate receiving your suggestions on program topics.

Announcements

BOARD-OF-DIRECTORS Meeting, May 4 - Board approved $112.50 for the awards program to the Keyettes and $150.00 to the Key Club. The awards to be given as Savings Bonds to outstanding members of both groups...President Price to set-up a telephone committee within the Club in an effort to improve attendance and participation in club activities...The representatives of the Club at Division 4 A/B Council will be B. Price, G. Smith and D. Jones. The Caucus Delegates are B. Price and G. Smith...Board voted to send $50.00 to the Grundy Kiwanis Club Flood Relief Program and approved $10.00 to fund the Key Club awards at the Spring Fling.

INTERCLUBS, April 22 - The Petersburg Club was visited by V. Orr, G. Hurd, D. Swift and John Clark. The Chester Club has made 12 Interclubs in 7 months according to IC Chairman, Billy Johnson. Sorry Billy - I got that a little "screwed-up" in the last Newsletter.

SPRING FLING, May 20 - Work assignments were sent to each of you in April 25th Newsletter. Co-Chairman, Bill Brennan and Vince Orr have additional copies. The second mailing of publicity has been made to Division 4 A/B Clubs. John Clark has our tickets on sale now at $5.00 per person and wives, ex-wives, girl friends and perspective members are invited. We cleared over $300 on this last year, so as host of this annual affair lets's have 100% participation.

PERSONALITY PROFILE: Vincent E. Orr, wife Jean and two daughters, Joanne and Susan live in Hidden Valley. He is employed by the U.S. Army as Project Officer in Computer Systems. Vince joined Kiwanis in February 1977 and has been active in the Club's projects. He's Co-Chairman for Spring Fling 1977. Hobbies include antique cars, horses and music.

DETENTION HOME - John Clark plans either a MacDonald's Nite on May 26 or a softball game, or maybe both. It's that time of the year when sports become an active part of this program.

CRAB FEAST - Jim Hyler and the Membership Committee at Billy Johnson's Estate on Sat., May 14, from 6 P.M. 'til ??? Members are reminded to bring prospective members for an informal get-together. The fee is $5.50 with guest paid for by the Club. There will be hot dogs and hamburgers for the likes of Russ Brown.

NEWSLETTER AWARD - The Kiwan-O-Gram won second place in the Capital District Club Bulletin Content in the Blue Section. All winners of Capital District First and Second Prizes are automatically entered in the Kiwanis International Contest. I want to express my appreciation to Mrs. Ruby Oliver for her excellent efforts in converting my scribbling into a legible and hopefully informative Newsletter. Thanks Ruby!!

SPONSORED YOUTH ACTIVITIES - KEY CLUB had 8 members attending the Capital District Convention at Virginia Beach during May. Mark Rodgers campaigned for and was elected Lt. Governor of District 4-B. 1977-78 officers have been elected and will be inducted in late May or June.
KEYETTES - Had 4 members attend the International Keyette Convention in Boston last week-end. Their 1977-78 officers have been elected and will be inducted on May 31.
BOTH CLUBS worked last Saturday, planting shrubbery around the Thomas Dale School sign. Both clubs will be meeting during the summer and are convassing the community for new members.
