PRESIDENT'S VIEW

"The opportunity is service, the challenge is performance" says Governor Ray. It is half way through the year. Time to check out those goals. Oh, Oh!

Membership - Our goal is 65 members by year end. Our official current membership is 60, down one from the beginning of the year. We are planning no more membership roundups. It is up to you to bring your buddy into the Kiwanis family. See a familiar face around town but not at the Wednesday meeting? Invite him back.

Youth Service - We need a youth service project. Something that will involve the youth of our community and the club. Any ideas?

Detention Home - Please check the roster to see when you are signed up. We need more support to show the kids that someone cares. One question that is always heard at the detention home is "When are you coming back?" We are a light in the darkness where for some the only entertainment is counting the holes in the bottom of a bunk bed.

Community Service Planning - We need a good service project for September. We have the manpower and the money. But we need an idea.

INTERCLUB

We made it just in time on April 30 thanks to Herb, Larry McCoy, Mark and Bill Bowles.

PROGRAMS

- May 8 - Spring Fling - Buxton Farm. Please be on time for your work assignment. This is our one "Big Project" of the year. As Bill requested, please do not drink beer while working.
- May 15 - Pizza Nite at Buck Porter's. In the event of rain, go to Bill K's garage. Bring your 2 for 1 pizza coupon.
- May 22 - John Rolfe Players or speaker from Virginia Petroleum Council.
- May 29 - John Rolfe Players or speaker from Virginia Petroleum Council
- June 5 - Special general meeting of membership prior to BOD meeting to discuss Volksmarsch project. How can we do it better? Be there and have your say.

CAPITAL DISTRICT FOUNDATION

Enclosed you will find a brochure on the Capital District Foundation. Please take the time to review this literature. As you will note, the interest from the invested monies is used to support the training of our youth in the Key Clubs and the Circle K Clubs throughout the District. We also donate to a Major Emphasis Project within the District. These are great causes as you know. Please consider making a $100 contribution to this worthwhile endeavor. Fill out the brochure and mail it in soon.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Chairman Byron reports that there are plans for two Dutch/Belgium couples to be hosted by our club. He is looking for one other couple in our club to host a third couple.

PERSONALITY PROFILE

On Wednesday night Gov. Elect Joe inducted our newest member, Ronald W. Martin, who was sponsored by Martin Jones. Ron and his wife, Britta, live on Harrowgate Road. He has been a resident of Chesterfield for 17 years and is an independent agent for American Family Life Insurance Company. His hobbies include fishing and hunting. Welcome Ron to Kiwanis Club of Chester!!

VISITOR

On Wednesday night Key Club Lt. Governor G. Sloan was present to display Thomas Dale's first time ever trophy that they won for their annual achievement report at the Key Club Convention.

ATTENDANCE

We are committed to the catering service to have thirty (30) members to eat each Wednesday night. The food is satisfactory and we need to support these people or we will be without any source for dinner.

DETENTION HOME

It was computer games night on April 25 followed by refreshments. Those present included Buck, Phil Crow, Martin Jones and Baxter. On May 30 we will have a cook-out. Baxter is asking for members to volunteer to bring baked beans, potato salad, potato chips, desserts and any other appropriate goodies for a picnic. In addition, we will need a good turnout of members to help with cooking and serving. The Detention Home Roster for May consists of Dave Jones, Tam, Cliff, Irvin, Dave Lone, Joe Hillier and Tom Gayner.
