PRESIDENT'S VIEW

The Installation of Officer's banquet is normally a celebration of accomplishments and an introduction of the new administration's goals for the Club. This year it was truly a farewell ... Hank's last words were "tell them anytime they're in Greensboro ... look me up." We honored Kiwanians Bob Gosnell and John Williams with memorials in the Capital District Foundation ... members who have passed on, but whose memory still remains. Families honored Herb George, Marshall Henry, Buck Porter, Lindy Beggs, Russ Brown, Hank Dvorak, Irving Owings, Dave Lykins, Guy Smith, and Bill Koogler with Life Membership in the Capital District Foundation. Foundation contributions are used to build a perpetual fund. Interest from the fund is used to train and supplement Sponsored Youth Officers throughout the district. These men are not only honored today, but always.

Rick Dodson was selected as the Kiwanian of the Year. This award is given to the club member who demonstrates a "Kiwanis Attitude" ... that selfless ideal we all admire. President-designate Russ presented a glimpse into the future. Russ sees a need to change the club by-laws, and establish a Chester Foundation. The impending widening of Route 10 could turn into a long-term club project to help beautify Chester. Never missing the opportunity to party, Russ pledges a continued emphasis on Ladies Nights.

The only way to achieve true success is to express yourself completely in service to society.

QUALITY & COMMITMENT

Do you know anyone sincerely interested in COMMUNITY SERVICE? Someone who stands out in a crowd. Someone who always has a "great idea"? Someone who isn't a Kiwanian simply because they weren't introduced? Now is your chance to invite them to check us out. Simply submit their name to Joe Hillier by Oct 23. The board will approve them for membership and send them a formal invitation to the Nov 16th meeting. Don't forget to include your own name as a sponsor ... it helps to know you have a friend in KIWANIS.

A KIWANIS CONCERN

The only thing worse than paying dues is asking that they be paid!

WELCOME TO THE CLUB

The club is proud to welcome L.A. Rosenstock who is transferring from the Petersburg Breakfast Club. L.A. attended Washington and Lee University and obtained a law degree from the University of Richmond. His hobbies are reading and travel. He has two children, Jerry, 18 and Amy, 15. President-designate Russ is putting him right to work, investigating the legal aspects of a Chester Kiwanis Foundation.

Be sure to welcome back former member Larry McCoy. Larry obtained his BS from VCU, and is currently the VP and Sr. Credit Officer at the Virginia Banker's Bank in Richmond. Larry is a Colonial Heights resident where he lives with wife Kay, and eight year old swim team champion, Ashley.

ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Greg Barnes and Al Schlimme ... not together ... the cigar smoke would be un-believable!

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The chairman would like to thank Joe White and Dick Goyne for helping clear the deep woods around the Nursing Home. Armed with Machetes, corn-whackers, pitchforks, shovels, and rakes, the crew accomplished the objective and still had time to complain about the rain.

KIWAN-O-BILLIA

Within the club we have all sorts of doctors. As we all know ... the only thing separating us regular guys from them is a piece of paper to hang on the wall and a language all their own. In the interest of closing the vast gap between the lay membership and the elite, we are presenting this short glossary of common medical terms:

BILL BOWLES, MD

- Artery - a study of painting.
- Barium - what you do when CPR fails.
- Colic - a sheep dog.
- Coma - a punctuation mark.
- Congenital - friendly
- Dilate - to live long.
- Fester - quicker.
- G.I. Series - baseball games between teams of soldiers.
- Grippe - a suitcase.
- Outpatient - a person who has fainted
- Postoperative - a letter carrier.
- Serology - a study of English Knighthood.
- Tablet - a small table.
- Tumor - an extra pair.
- Urine - opposite of "you're out."
