CHESTER KIWANIS INDUCTS 3 NEW MEMBERS

Recently the Chester Kiwanis Club inducted three new members. Pat Cathers, Keith Hatch and Andy Lafely were inducted on February 2nd.

PAT CATHERS is a native of Chester who moved away for a while until he realized his mistake and returned 3 years ago. He works for Enron Power Company and is married to Pen. They have three children.

KEITH HATCH is also a native of Chester. He is a CPA and works for Burgess and Co. His wife Emily and their two children live in Arbor Landing. Keith is a 2nd generation Kiwanian. His father was at one time a member of the Chester Kiwanis Club.

ANDREW LAFLEY is another prodigal son of Chester. After living in Chester for six years in the eighties he moved away for awhile but has recently returned. Andy teaches and is very interested in getting involved with the youth. He is engaged to be married this year.
