QUESTIONNAIRES

from the President-Elect

All Kiwanians received a questionnaire as an enclose with the last newsletter. To date the President-elect, Dan Hill, has received only 6 responses. Please take a minute or two to fill out the questionnaire and submit them to Dan NLT August 14, 96. That will give Dan time to review them and assess your comments. It is very helpful for an incoming President to know what are the goals and expectations of its membership. If you have misplaced your questionnaire please call the newsletter editor for a replacement copy.

THANKS TO PRESIDENT BILL

for organizing the Richmond Braves night and getting the tickets. Even though the R Braves had a rough night the Kiwanians had a good time. Those of you that ordered tickets and were unable to attend, and didn't contact President Bill, please pay Bill for the tickets.

APOLOGIES TO PHIL REDMAN.

The editor has egg on his face. In the last edition of the newsletter I was trying to point out that Phil's dedication and concern for Kiwanis was never questioned. I inadvertently used "always" instead of never as I was considering the phrase "...always above reproach". Sorry, for the mistake Phil, I think you know we all appreciate your unselfish service to our club and Kiwanis.

Larry Visocan is leaving the jungle of Irian Jaya to vacation in the States. Larry & Betty will be in the Chester area in August for a short period of time. I have email'ed Larry and asked him to give the program on 28 Aug 96. I will keep you advised.
