Its Luggage Time

Time to get up in your attics and down in your basements and storage sheds...you are looking for new or used pieces of luggage (as long as they are usable). The Lutheran Family services Foster Care Program can use your help. You may also buy and donate suitcases. Bring to meetings or call Julie Hamilton

Take time at the next meeting to say hi to new member F. Gibbons "Gib" Sloan III. Gib is a Past President of the TDHS Key Club and Lt Gov, Div 18, Capital District Key Club. We welcome Gib and Jennifer to the Chester Club. Gib works at Paine Webber.

MEMBERSHIP GOAL FOR 1997-1998 IS 16 NEW MEMBERS!

TICKETS

Tickets are available - Now!
 Get yours from Julie Hamilton.
 Julie will have them at all the meeting until the big day in May. Please take the time to line through the word Fall on the back of the tickets and write in Spring. All the information on the front of the ticket is correct.

Ticket accountability is tough. To keep on path and fully account for all tickets, Julie needs your help. Please turn in all your tickets and/or money to Julie. Don't give tickets to other Kiwanians if you are not going to sell them. Return them to Julie and she will re-issue them. Thanks for your help in this matter. Sell those tickets as soon as you can. I promise nice weather, so sell now. Remember the cost is $17.00 this year. Thanks

DISTINGUISHED KIWANIAN

Congratulations to first time Distinguished Kiwanian Buck Porter, 4th Time Distinguished Kiwanian Marshall Henry, and 12th Time Distinguished Kiwanian Joe Hillier. The Chester Club had the most Distinguished Kiwanians in the 18th Division for the 1996-1997 year. Well done!
