Calendar of events

The next two months are very busy. Here are some of the activities that you should "capture" on your calendar. OCT 31, Interclub time. Come to the Kiwanis Club of CH's

Pancake Breakfast (Fund Raiser) at 8 AM and attend the Division Council Meeting at 9 AM. The record for our club is 12 members attending each, a "triple - triple". Let's exceed that this year. ~

NOV 13, is the Membership Oyster Roast at the Chester Fishing Club...bring the family and prospective members. Each person should strive to bring one potential member. It will ultimately reduce your workload, increase club awareness and increase community service revenue. ~ DEC 2-6, Golden opportunity to pick up some quick, easy cash for the club by providing volunteers to work shifts at the Bizarre Bazaar. Each members has received a flyer with details. A 4 hour contribution by each member would net the club $1200. Bring spouse, kids or significant other(s) and we earn even more. See Guy Smith to sign up.

~ DEC 4, is the Capital District Governor's Annual Dinner Visit with our division. Please mark that date down and plan to attend. ~ DEC 13, is The Chester Christmas Parade. This is a community service project with the potential to make some money for the community. We will need →

What's Going On at the Meetings?

At the Oct 19th Meeting the Sheriff, Two Gun Schorer, got out the money bottle and as is his style, told a story on himself. The different was he didn't pay -to-tell. Yes, Cliff snuck a freebie (in fact, four stories) in on the club. ~ Ed Robbins is now again "gentile" after getting his dander up with the US Army Reserve. Welcome back Gentile ~ Bunny kicked in a buck but wouldn't share why. We were all glad to see her again and didn't ask. ~ Eleanor paid a buck for not having her pin. She was the only one of three that volunteered to play the game straight. ~ Bob Goodwin passed the Kiwanis Teddy Bear to Rick who artfully had Bunny carry it outside past all the truckers and Rednecks. ~ Marshall gave a program on the Chester Forum and thanked all the great Kiwanians that have lent there support. [This year: David & Julie Eisenhower, Peter bogdanovich, and The Capitol Steps.] ~ Dan Hill is working on a bowling meeting for a change of venue. ~ We had 26 Kiwanians at the meeting and it was nice to see so many smiling faces. ~ Got a real good opportunity to make some cash for the club. Please volunteer some time to help at Bizarre Bazaar...see Guy Smith. ~ We all need to focus on new members, they are our life blood.
