President's Message

When I began my term as President, one of my goals was for the club to begin work on the Hotel Yard property. Thank each of you who were willing to come out and help make our work day a success. Converting the lot into a place that people will want to visit is a major undertaking for our club and I am happy that we have finally taken the first step. I especially want to thank Dr. Joe for leading the effort as chairman of the Hotel Yard Committee.

The Governor's visit was a major success. Governor John did appreciate so many Kiwanians and friends coming out to meet him.

He even thanked me again at the Mid-Winter. This night was special to our club because we were able to surprise Dr. Joe with a Tablet of Honor. It's not often we can surprise him because he does stay so actively involved. Our club is lucky to have a past Governor who is still very active, and the Tablet of Honor is a way we can say thank-you to Dr. Joe for the work he has done.

KIWANIS EDUCATION - IDD

In 1994, Kiwanis International made a promise to the world's children: Kiwanis and its Kiwanis family is raising $75 million to virtually eliminate the world's most prevalent, preventable cause of mental retardation, iodine deficiency disorders (IDD). The successful completion of this mission will rank as one of mankind's greatest health-related achievements. More than 1.5 billion children and adults will be saved from disorders that include stillbirths, cretinism, and goiter, as well as academic performance and productivity.

You can make a difference...

President's Message

- Continued from front page

A second goal I want to achieve is the addition of ten new members this year. A large part of the Mid-Winter Conference was devoted to membership. Kiwanis believes that we must aim to increase members, or else we will shrink and fail. We have already added two new members this year, but the year is one third gone. Our first special guest night was successful, because we did get a new member following it. Eleanor is planning a second event, but she needs each of your help. Who do you know that should be a member? What about friends, co-workers, church members, or spouses? Does anyone know the parents of any of our sponsored youth? What about the people in the community that also serve the children such as teachers, doctors, nurses or Red Cross workers?

Eleanor and I do not know all these people, but you do. Let her have their names, and we will invite them to the special guest night. You have already done the hardest part by showing them that Kiwanis is important to the community. Lets give them a chance to share in our Kiwanis experience.

Thanks to Scout Troop 877

Workers at the January park Clean-up project included members of Boy Scout Troop 877. They helped by cleaning trash out of the ditch that lines the property. Not an easy task.
